

is proud to announce its support and involvement with this years MITS Awards in honour of the legend Sir Tom Jones.

Sir Tom, knighted by the Queen in 2006 and celebrating his 70th Birthday this year, has notched up a stellar career over five decades and continues to scale the very highest peaks of the music business, both in the UK and around the world.

David Munns, Chairman of the Award committee said: "Tom Jones is one of those rare beings, a timeless entertainer, a great guy, who clearly loves what he does, and whose talent appeals to successive generations. Tom is Mr Cool, one of the world's greatest singers and performers and we are extremely proud and honoured that he is the 2010 recipient of the Music Industry Trusts's Award".

The Award will be presented to Tom Jones on 1st November at London's Grosvenor House Hotel.

The Music Industry Trusts's Award, now in its 19th year, has earned its respected place in the entertainment industry due to the great names that have held this honour: Sir George Martin, Ahmet Ertegun, Sir Elton John and Bernie Taupin, John Barry, Lucian Grainge, Lord Andrew Lloyd Webber and Kylie Minogue.

The Award was founded to recognise outstanding achievement in the UK music industry as well as to benefit its two charities, Nordoff Robbins and the BRIT Trust. The Award evening has become renowned for its magic moments, with unique live performances that have a special resonance for the recipient.

Delga wishes to congratulate Sir Tom Jones on this much coveted Award.
